

MISSING

If you think a person living with dementia is missing, check the immediate surroundings - home, garden, and neighbours house.

Phone
Police Scotland
999

Consider phoning round people and places where the person living with dementia usually visits.

Remain contactable for updates and in case the person living with dementia returns. Keep your phone line free and get help with phoning around and updating friends and family.

Does the person living with dementia have a profile document? If so access it now and let Police Scotland know.

Send a
Purple Alert

Families and carers should consider what to do in the future. Are there safeguards that could be put in place?

SAFE+WELL

When the person living with dementia returns....

Police Scotland will give advice and support to help with future missing person concerns.

REMEMBER

Let Police Scotland know if the person living with dementia returns at any point.

Questions to ask yourself.....

Do you know what they were wearing?

Have they got money or bank cards?

Have they got a travel card?

Do they have a car and do you know the vehicle registration?

