

Connecting People, Connecting Support communication methods

Daily tweets @AHPDementia

Allied Health Professionals in Scotland raising awareness about dementia and how they CAN help by sharing hints and tips.

Weekly Blog Let's Talk about Dementia

Shares the work and practice of allied health professionals offering advice to help people remain active and independent, sharing the work of Alzheimer Scotland.
www.alzscot.org/talking\_dementia

Bi-monthly Webex

The Alzheimer Scotland AHP Dementia forum share examples of practice from throughout Scotland to support the spread of evidence informed practice. You can source the slides here
<http://www.knowledge.scot.nhs.uk/ahpcommunity/ailp-priority-workstreams/dementia.aspx>

Bimonthly updates

Spotlight reports by members of Alzheimer Scotland AHP Dementia Forum sharing local integration of CPCS. All available since July 2019 at www.alzscot.org/ahp

24 month updates

A 24 month overview of Connecting People, Connecting Support local integration and progress will be developed by Alzheimer Scotland shared through local and national networks.

This diagram represents the communication methods developed to share the impact of Connecting People, Connecting Support to local practice.