

Tips for Talking

Make time for conversations, talking is not always in words!

This booklet is for you if you are struggling to take part in conversations. Your family, friends and carers should read it too.

Alzheimer Scotland
Action on Dementia

Made by Helena Gentles, Speech and Language Therapy student at Queen Margaret University 2021, with Rebecca Kellett, Speech and Language Therapist, NHS Lothian Adult Community Speech and Language Therapy Service.

All images used with permission.

Grateful thanks to Kevin Gentles for taking part.

This booklet has some tips for talking.
You may need help with some of the tips.
You can use the tips that you like.
There is advice at the end of the booklet for the people you talk to.

Talking

Talking to one person is best.
Talking in a group can be tricky.
Say one thing at a time.
Keep sentences short.

The room

Be in the same room.

Talk face to face.

The room should be light.

Cut out background noise.

Wear your glasses

Wear your hearing aids

Do not rush

SLOW DOWN

Give extra time for listening.

Allow time to understand what is said.

Give extra time for talking.

Allow pauses for thinking.

Keep calm. Relax.

Pen and paper

You can write down key words.

Someone can write for you.

The words can help you keep on topic.

You can point to the words.

If words are tricky

Sometimes you might forget a word.

Try to talk around the word.

Try a different word

Try again

Sometimes the other person may not understand.

You can try again.

You can stop and try again later.

Talk without words

Point to an object.

Bring an object.

Talk without words

Facial expressions can help.

Gestures can help.

Use objects

Keep some objects to help with talking.

Point to an object if you forget a word.

Pictures can help. A map can help.

A newspaper can help.

A calendar can help.

Write a list

My Family:

Stephen

Kim

Laila

Cole

Malik

Jennifer

Gary

My Places:

Home

Malik's house

Church

Gloria's cafe

Library

Park

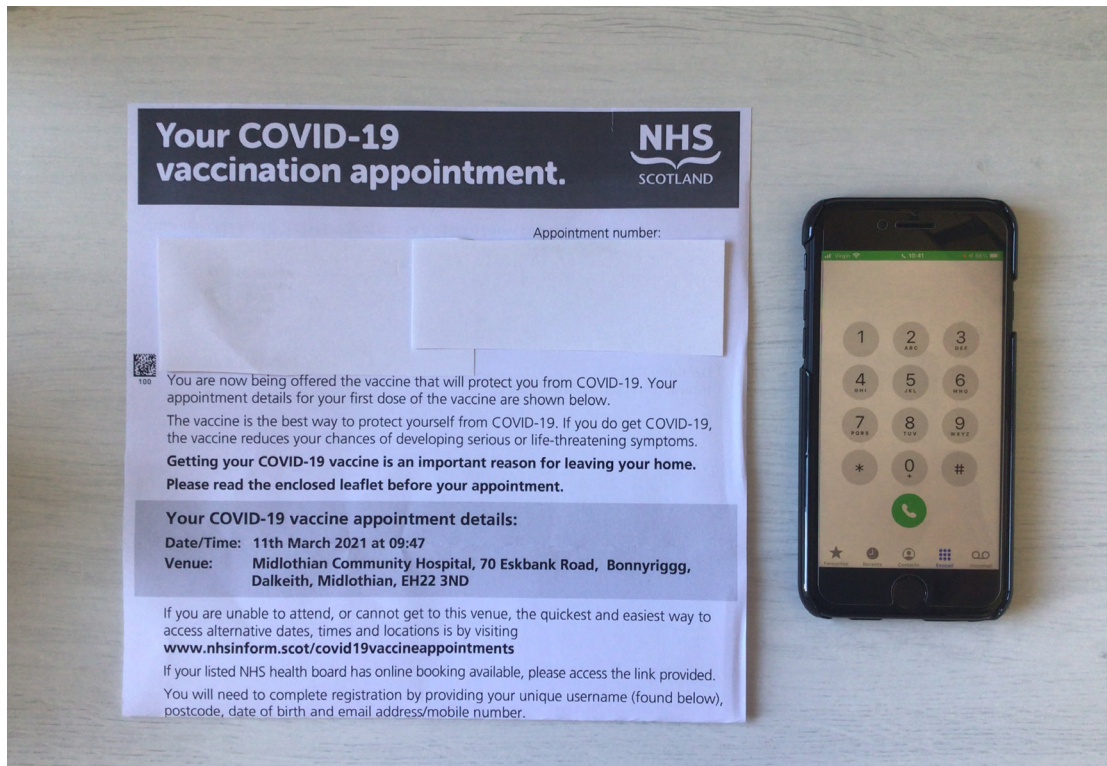

Gary's house

Keep a list of useful words.

List the names of your family.

List places you like to talk about.

Get ready for talking

Get ready before you make a phone call.

Get ready before you have an appointment.

Get ready before you talk about something important.

Get ready for talking

Write down what you want to say.

Someone can help you write.

Ask for important information in writing.

Visitors' Notebook

Keep a visitors' notebook in your home.

Put a label on your notebook.

Ask all visitors to write why they have come.

Visitors' Notebook

Use the notebook to remember.

Use the notebook to talk about your news.

Take photos

Take photos during your day.
You can take photos with a camera.
You can take photos with a phone.
You can take photos with a tablet.
Other people can take photos.

Take photos

Use the photos to remember.

Use the photos to talk about your news.

Make a life story book

You can make a book about your life.
You can ask for help to make the book.

Use a binder.

A binder lets you add more pictures later.
Friends and family can add to the book.

Make a life story book

Use the book to talk about your life.

Look at the book with your family.

Look at the book with your friends.

Getting to know me form

Getting to know me form available at: <https://www.alzscot.org/our-work/dementia-support/information-sheets/getting-to-know-me>

getting to know me

This information will help staff to support you. It will help us get to know you, understand who and what is important to you, and how you like things to be.

We invite you, your family, friends and carers to complete this information with as much detail as you want to share with us.

Please ask a member of staff if you need any help to complete this information.

my name: my full name & the name I prefer to be called the person who knows me best:

home, family & things that are important to me:
your family, friends, pets or things about home

Alzheimer Scotland has made a form.
The form is called getting to know me.
The form can help others get to know you.
You can bring the form if you have to go to hospital.

Tips for the people you talk to

Starting a conversation.

Use a comment instead of a question.

This gives an opening without testing the person's memory or word-finding.

Use questions carefully to offer choices.

Open question

Use the right level of question for the person.

Wide choice, harder to answer.

Choice of two

Less choice, easier to answer.

Once at a time

Even less choice,
even easier to answer.

Objects or pictures to point to

Choices help the person have some control of their life.

Helping to hold on to the message

Spoken words only last an instant.
Written words, pictures, gestures and objects give the person more time.

Helping to hold on to the message

Use these yourself in conversations to help the other person join in.

Further information

If you would like to feedback on your experience using this booklet, please email: AHPDementia@alzscot.org.

To explore other ways of living well with dementia please visit: www.cpcs.online.

Alzheimer Scotland is Scotland's national dementia charity. Our aim is to make sure nobody faces dementia alone. We provide support and information to people with dementia, their carers and families, we campaign for the rights of people with dementia and fund vital dementia research.

Alzheimer Scotland
160 Dundee Street
Edinburgh EH11 1DQ
Tel: 0131 243 1453
E-mail: info@alzscot.org www.alzscot.org

© Alzheimer Scotland, 2024

Alzheimer Scotland – Action on Dementia is a company limited by guarantee, registered in Scotland 149069. Registered office: 160 Dundee Street, Edinburgh EH11 1DQ. It is recognised as a charity by the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator, no. SC022315