

Alzheimer Scotland
Annual Winter Lecture 2018

Myths & Dreams
Delivered by Professor Karen Ritchie

Monday 10 December
Doors open: 5:30pm
Lecture: 6 – 7pm
Old Fruitmarket, City Halls, Candleriggs, Glasgow G1 1NQ

PROGRAMME

Time	Item	Speaker
17:30 – 18:00	Doors open Opportunity to visit exhibitor stands and enjoy festive nibbles
18:00 – 18:05	Welcome	Henry Simmons, Chief Executive, Alzheimer Scotland
18:05 – 18:15	Don't forget the brain	Prof. Craig Ritchie, Chair of the Psychiatry of Ageing and Director of the Centre for Dementia Prevention, the University of Edinburgh
18:15 – 18:45	Myths and dreams Scientists' view of Alzheimer's disease is changing, leading to exciting new approaches to diagnosis and treatment	Prof. Karen Ritchie Research Director, French National Institute of Medical Research (INSERM); Visiting Professor, the University of Edinburgh
18:45 - 18:55	Questions & answers Your opportunity to ask the speakers questions
18:55 – 19:00	Closing remarks	Henry Simmons, Chief Executive, Alzheimer Scotland

